

PRESS RELEASE – March 12, 2013

NEWMARKET JAZZ+ FESTIVAL

AUGUST 2, 3, 4 – Riverwalk Commons, Newmarket, Ontario

Newmarket jazz+ Festival organizers are pleased to announce:

JUSTIN HINES will perform Saturday evening – August 3, 2013

Justin is a truly inspirational home-grown Canadian entertainer, musician and song writer. He will release "How We Fly" his fifth studio album on May 14th, 2013 embarking on a North American tour during the summer. Justin returns to Newmarket, Ontario during his tour to perform at the new Newmarket jazz+ Festival of art and music in his former hometown setting!

"It's great to see the arts community in Newmarket growing so rapidly. I'm honoured to be making my return to Newmarket and to be participating in the Newmarket jazz + festival. Play on!"

Justin has been making music in Canada for over a decade. His last album "Days To Recall" released in the U.S pushed his international star higher. A PBS special "Days To Recall: An Evening With Justin Hines" aired over 400 times across the U.S and his CBS Sunday Morning feature earned him thousands of new fans.

His captivating song "Say What You Will" is played all over the globe including South Africa where it has become a theme song of hope to South Africans building new schools. He is a Canadian hero! Get to know him...

Bring Family & Friends to the new Newmarket jazz+ Festival. Enjoy 3 days of great musicians, entertainers, visual artists, food, beer/wine garden and festival fun. Be part of the creative vibe in the heart of York Region!
