

TD-Newmarket jazz+ Festival

200 Doug Duncan Drive, Newmarket, Ontario L3Y 3Y9

News Release

July 2015

TD-Newmarket jazz+ Festival (TD-NJF)

Francesco Yates

Newmarket, July 20, 2015

Arts Music Festivals York Region (AMFYR) are pleased to announce teen sensation Francesco Yates will perform Monday, August 3rd at the 2015 TD-Newmarket jazz+ Festival.

Francesco's new single – 'Better to be Loved' is climbing the charts! He was recently a featured presenter at Toronto's Much Music Video Awards and has been given thumbs up from Pharrell Williams who states: "He's absolutely gonna be just a huge, huge, huge pop star."

Francesco Yates performs on Monday, August 3rd, Festival Family Day, at 7pm! Teen admission has been reduced to $5 to encourage more youth to attend and enjoy this wonderful young talent.

"We are thrilled to have Francesco Yates performing at the 3rd Annual Newmarket jazz+ Festival. The festival seeks to promote local Canadian talent and surely Francesco is a fabulous representative of all the up and coming Canadian stars! Sher St. Kitts, General Manager, Newmarket jazz+ Festival

2015 TD-Newmarket jazz+ Festival is also launching a Teen Lounge inside the Lions Halls which will be hosted by local stars Glenn Marais on Friday night and Bernadette Connors on Saturday night from 7 – 10pm. Friday night all teens enjoy FREE festival admission to help us launch the Chill Lounge!

Join us at Riverwalk Commons, 200 Doug Duncan Drive, Newmarket on Friday July 31st at 5:30pm until Monday August 3rd at 8pm for a fabulous, grass roots festival filled with art, music, dance, characters, food vendors, beer and wine gardens, Teen Chill Lounge, Creative Zone for the kids and more... The 2015 TD-NJF also supports the North Newmarket Lions – Lions Quest and the Herb Carnegie Future Aces Org.

-30-

Media Contact: Sher St. Kitts – General Manager 905 841 6893 - sherstkitts@gmail.com